

Protect your hearing it must last a life time.

1. Have administrative controls in place: wear your hearing protection
2. Have engineering controls in place: test the area annually for noise
3. Have annual medical questionnaire and hearing testing done
4. Have a complete Hearing Conservation Program in place

Safety Depends on You.

For safety information, visit: www.Seco.noaa.gov